

Civello 2009

White Wine of California

This is absolutely a unique wine. It is the only blend available of Verdehlo grapes newly grown in California, blended with Coastal Pinot Gris-Grigio and Chardonnay. The result of a long, fun blending session with winemaker Richard de los Reyes and his annoying wine muse Lisa Rein. Looking for something new and fun, they came up with Civello - a wine that is zesty, refreshing and dinner enhancing. They are two different people who argue over wines constantly. When it comes to white wines, he loves Alsace. She loves Champagne. They both love Civello. They pronounce it: Cha-vello.

Vintage: 2009

Alcohol: 13.5

Acidity: 0.75

Dry

Aromas

Zesty citrus and ripe apricots

Flavors

Nuts and sweet apricot flowers. But the wine is surprisingly dry.

By the glass

Each glass is refreshing and oddly never filling. This wine really enhances spicy summer dips.

At the table

Perfect with multiple plates of Chinese, Japanese or Latin delicacies.
