

2009 Russian River Pinot Noir

100% Pinot Noir • 100% Russian River • 100% Dutton-Sanchietti Ranches

Vineyards: Dutton-Sanchietti

Our Russian River Pinot Noir grapes are farmed exclusively by two of the most highly regarded vineyard families in Sonoma County.

Winemaking

The grapes are crushed at the winery fifteen minutes from the vineyards. The must is cold soaked for five days prior to fermentation. After fermentation the wine undergoes malo-lactic fermentation and then aging for 13 months in French Oak.

pH: 3.5
TA: .65
Alc: 14.7
Brix at harvest: 27

Pricing

The best deal you will find for Russian River wines from notable Pinot Noir Vineyards, because that is part of our philosophy of winemaking.

Tasting Notes

Complex aromas of fruit and spice combine with smoky hints of bacon. This wine will age for several years and open continually in the glass during the course of your meal.

Our History

Forty years of winemaking experience, California's best known, highest quality vineyards, and a commitment to the belief that wines should be priced to be enjoyed.
